Invitation

OFFICIAL LAUNCH OF AFRICAN JOURNAL OF SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, INNOVATION AND DEVELOPMENT

The Directorate of Research and Innovation (DRI) cordially invites you to the Official Launch of the African Journal of Science, Technology, Innovation and Development, and the 4th TUT Post-graduate Academy.

African Journal of Science, Technology, Innovation and Development (AJSTID) is a multidisciplinary journal covering economics, science, engineering, and technology, with the core focus on economics of innovation and development. AJSTID provides an important outlet to research on process and impact of science, technology and innovation at two levels: the narrow objective of achieving industrial growth, and the broader objective of achieving socio-economic development, particularly in Africa and other developing economies.

Prof Mammo Muchie who is the founding Co-Chief Editor is currently a DST-NRF South African Research Chair in Innovation Studies at the Tshwane University of Technology in Pretoria.
